NEW VIEWS!

SOCIETY

AS TO small functions, this week has been quiet, Labor Day with its attendant festivities occupying the attention of the public early in the week, while the throwing open again of beautiful Aiea, after the long months of its mournful hush, has meant a pleasure to many, both in participation at the recent gayety and in retrospect with thoughts of the charming girl who was its mistress in happy times gone by.

Mrs. Annis Montague Turner is expected home in the near future.

Hon. H. E. Cooper entertained a party of gentlemen at his country home on Saturday last. The seven guests made the trip down by water, being taken by Captain Merry, U. S. N., in the government launch. At the western lock they were met by Mr. Cooper's steam launch, the Manuwa, in which they enjoyed their inspection of the proposed naval site, and after which they lunched at the Coopers' hospital board, coming back to Honolulu by train at the close of the enjoyable day. Those composing the party were General Breckenridge, U. S. A.; Major Davis, U. S. A.; Captain Pond, U. S. N.; Captain Merry, U. S. N.; Captain White, U. S. N., and Mr. A. G. Hawes Jr.

Mr. Theo. F. Dredge, son-in-law of Mr. Alexander Young, was an incoming passenger by the Doric, from Japan, where he has been on business.

A very delightful swimming party was given from the Moana early in the week, the bathers enjoying the band at the hotel, while they were taking their dip. Among the number were Mrs. J. T. McDonald, Mr. Warner, Mr. Culver, Mr. Clifton Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, Mr. Thornton, Mr. Austin, Miss Austin, Miss Burdick, Mr. Morris, Miss Yarrow, Mr. Newton and Miss Duff.

Mr. E. J. Cotton, who has been in Hilo on business, has returned to town.

Mrs. M. Horner and two daughters, from Hawaii, are in town.

Mr. Ernest Parker was an incoming passenger by the last Island boat.

Mr. F. H. Hayselden and Mrs. R. Hayselden arrived in town early in the week.

Judge and Mrs. M. M. Estee have taken a cottage in the Hawaiian Hotel grounds and will be domiciled there in future.

Mrs. Edgar Wood, who has been in the Eastern States for a number of months, returned to the Islands on the last Moana.

Mrs. St. C. Sayers, who, with her little child, has been the guest of Mr. Sayers' relatives in Victoria, returned home on the mid-week steamer.

Mr. L. von Tempeky, wife and children, were incoming passengers by a late foreign steamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Sturtevant returned from their trip away on the Moana.

The E. J. Cottons, who have been occupying the cottage of Mrs. Montague Turner during her absence, have gone to the Hawaiian Hotel.

Mrs. C. H. Dickey, who has been visiting on the other islands, came back to town during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Church, who have been "doing" the extinct volcano on Maui, were home comers by way of the last Claudine.

Major William A. Purdy is in town for a few days, from Hilo.

The last Claudine numbered among its passengers Hon. William White.

The portrait of the late Paul Newman, which has been done by Theo. Wores, is now completed, and the Pacific Club committee who have inspected it, previous to its being sent to the framers, are delighted with the work, declaring it a perfect likeness.

On Thursday, August 22, at noon, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Carpenter, in San Francisco, Miss Edith Cruzan and Mr. Arthur Pickenscher, were made man and wife. Miss Cruzan is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Cruzan, of Hilo, while the groom is the organist of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, of Oakland.

Miss Lillian Bacon is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Church.

Recent letters from Germany tell of the sojourn of the Mers at Harzburg, where also, with them, are Mrs. and Miss Mist, and where, later, they expect to be joined by the Kings. The Hoffmans, Days and Kings have all been together in Berlin.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cooper are expected home in the near future.

Mr. H. D. Sloggett returned to Kauai by the last W. G. Hall.

Mrs. J. Waterhouse was an outgoing passenger on Tuesday's Island boat.

Mr. S. T. Alexander left for Kahului early in the week.

Mr. Wade Thayer went to the other Islands by the last Kauai.

Mrs. F. B. McStocker and daughter went home Tuesday.

Capt. Paul Smith is sojourning on the other Islands.

Old friends are welcoming Mr. Whitely to Honolulu once more.

The engagement of Miss Grace A. Farmer, of Albion, Neb., and Mr. Chas. H. Sweetser, civil engineer of the Lihue plantation, is announced.

Mrs. A. A. Montano and daughter, Miss Margaret Davidson, leave for San Francisco and the East on the steamship Sierra, which sails from Honolulu on September 17. They will be absent from the Islands until November or December. Miss Davidson goes away for the benefit of her health.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Wood entertained at dinner Thursday evening Monsieur Vizzavona, Miss Kaufman and Dr. C. L. Garvin.

Aiea, beloved by the Hawaiian race as the home of the Princess Kalanui, was in gala attire last Wednesday night, on the occasion of the wedding of Miss Elsie Robertson, granddaughter of Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, to Mr. James F. Jaeger. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. V. H. Kitcher, of the Anglican church, in the spacious lunal which had been converted into a conservatory in which ferns and maile were beautifully arranged. In one corner a bower of ferns formed a background for the bridal party. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of Ottoman silk, while her bridesmaids Miss Helen Robertson and Miss Mabel Robertson, were charming in pretty organdie creations. The bride's mother, Mrs. James F. Robertson, wore a beautiful rhodames silk hokoko. Edmund Stiles was the best man, and Mr. Henry Jaeger the groomsman. Queen Liliuokalani was present at the wedding ceremony, accompanied by Prince David Kawanakoa, and assisted in receiving the guests during the reception. Following the wedding a reception was held, which was attended by hundreds of the friends of the young people. Many beautiful presents were displayed. The groom is the son of the late Mr. Jaeger, a capitalist who did much for the propagation of forests surrounding Honolulu. He is also the nephew of Hon. Mark P. Robinson, Mrs. S. C. Allen, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Ward.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," said F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford Co., Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when Editor Ward, of the Lackeyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and I never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
